

Indiana's Privacy Law has greatly improved my hours at home. Senior citizens should not have to buy additional telephone services like Caller ID just to keep unwanted solicitors from invading their homes. It has entirely eliminated what was once a terrible nuisance. Please do not take away this protection of my privacy.